STATEMENT OF FACTS

This complaint is based on the personal observations, investigation, and information furnished to U. S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Hugo A. Leon.

On December 17, 2007, at approximately 0446 hours, Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer L. Rodriguez was assigned to Vehicle Primary Lane five (5) of the Calexico, California West Port of Entry when a 2000 white Dodge Intrepid bearing California license plates 6BBR499 approached for entry into the United States. Jesus GARCIA Gonzalez was the driver, registered owner, and sole occupant of the 2000 Dodge Intrepid.

CBP Officer L. Rodriguez encountered the driver of the Intrepid, GARCIA. CBP Officer Rodriguez received a negative Customs declaration from GARCIA. CBP Officer Rodriguez noticed that GARCIA was very nervous because GARCIA was fidgeting in his seat and his hands were shaky. CBP Officer Rodriguez referred the Intrepid and GARCIA to the Vehicle Secondary Lot for further inspection.

In the Vehicle Secondary Lot, CBP Canine Enforcement Officer C. Jones utilized his Narcotic-Human Detector Dog (NHDD). NHDD alerted to the trunk area of the Intrepid. CBP Officer A. Ramirez inspected the trunk area of the Intrepid and discovered cellophane wrapped packages concealed inside a specially built compartment in the spare tire wheel well area of the Intrepid. CBP Officer A. Ramirez probed one of the packages producing a green, leafy, organic substance that field-tested positive for marijuana. A total of twenty (20) packages were removed from the Intrepid. The total weight of the packages was approximately 18.80 kilograms (41.36 pounds) of marijuana.

After being advised of his rights, GARCIA waived his rights, agreeing to make a statement without an attorney present. GARCIA admitted to knowledge of the marijuana concealed in the Intrepid. GARCIA was to be paid $2,000.00 if successful in entering the United States and then delivering the Intrepid to an unknown location in Los Angeles, California.
